

Being a Christian, it is great to have K-LOVE as a commercial free alternative to secular radio stations. If K-Love was no longer available in Oklahoma City, our city would be without a fine Christian radio station and Oklahoma City is a spiritual place therefore leaving a huge void in many lives. I think it is important that listener supported Christian radio be given equal air time.